When Bon Tool Co. was introduced to GID several years ago, I knew we had found a great thing! Besides their locality being so convenient to us, I discovered a whole new appreciation to the usually dreaded word "mailing".

From our very first mailing experience with GID, I immediately realized we would never go back to our old ways of trying to handle volumes of mail in-house. We no longer had to be the mailing experts. GID understands the mailing process and all the options out there and is able to make suggestions that allow us to accomplish the task at hand in the time frame required.

It is refreshing to work with a company that employs team players. If we are pressed to get a job out the door quickly (which happens more times than not), everyone does their part to make it happen.

It is very easy for me to recommend GID to other companies who could benefit from their services.
